CRIMINAL DOCKET OF CIRCUIT COURT FINISHED

NO CONVICTIONS FOR FELONIES AT THIS TERM OF COURT.

In the case of the commonwealth vs. Henry Bussey, which was being tried when the paper went to press last week the jury after deliberating for several hours, reported that they could not agree. They were discharged and the case continued until the August term of the court. The jury stood ten for acquittal and two for conviction.

In the case of the commonwealth vs. Anderson Perkins, charged with the murder of his cousin, John Dial Perkins, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. In the case of John Perkins and Harvey Perkins, brothers, who were jointly indicted with Anderson Perkins, the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal and the defendants released. These cases were the last on criminal docket to be tried.

On Monday the trial of the case of Chas. Hogg vs. the C. & O. Ry. for damages alleged to have been received by having been struck by one of the company's trains near Catlettsburg, was begun and occupied the time of the court for nearly three days. The jury gave a verdict awarding Hogg $2000.00. He had sued for $2000.00. The case will be appealed.

A motion made by the prosecution in the case of the commonwealth vs. Bussey for change of venue was overruled.

IN PRISON YEAR; INNOCENT; FREED.

Frankfort, Ky., April 22.—After spending a year in prison for a crime to which another man confessed, Jesse Miller, of Breathitt-co., was pardoned by Gov. Stanley.

Isaac Miller, father of the prisoner, had a controversy with Ambrose Fugate and Arthur Roberts at a mill near the Miller home and left to go to his house. Jesse Miller was at home and Fugate and Roberts followed Isaac Miller, opening with a fusillade of shots at the dwelling.

The Millers replied with rifles and Fugate fell dead with a bullet hole in the back of his head and powder marks around the wound. The bullet which killed Fugate, was lost until after Miller had been convicted. Later it was discovered that he was killed with a .22-caliber revolver bullet and a storekeeper testified that Roberts previously acquitted of the crime, had bought such bullets from him shortly before the shooting.

A few months later Roberts killed his brother-in-law and was sent to prison and paroled, dying soon after gaining his freedom. His father said that on his death bed his son confessed that he had accidentally killed Fugate, while shooting at the Millers.

George Farler, of Letcher-co., paroled in 1906 while serving a term for manslaughter, was restored to citizenship.

MINE RESCUE STATION FOR HAZARD, KY., URGED.

Washington, April 24.—To urge the necessity of establishing a mine rescue station at Hazard, Director Manning appeared today before subcommittee of the House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds, of which Representative Campbell Cantrell is chairman. A bill for the establishment of such a station was introduced by Representative J. W. Langley, who is a member of Mr. Cantrell's subcommittee. Director Manning pointed out the great service the Government mine stations have given and strongly urged the establishment of such a station at Hazard.

BOYS ROB POSTOFFICE.

Ned Mobley, a handsome sixteen year old youth, who lived with his aunt at Chapmanville, Logan-co., was placed in the county jail last night by the federal authorities, charged with robbing the Chapmanville postoffice, last Friday night.

Young Mobley, with a short laugh, frankly admitted his guilt to United States Commissioner J. P. Douglas, and described how with another boy, younger than himself, he accomplished the robbery.—Huntington Herald-Dispatch.

REV. JOHN MARTIN.

Rev. John Martin, pastor of the Cottage Grove Methodist Episcopal church was given a cordial and happy surprise in recognition of his seventy-sixth birthday anniversary, which event took place at his home in Guyandotte. Mrs. Thomas Dugan was a pleasant assistant, the many friends remembering the honored guest with charming and useful gifts.—Herald-Dispatch.

ENEMIES OF APPLE TREES.

Mr. W. A. Patton our noted horticulturist and farmer, brought us some interesting specimens from his orchard today which showed the effect of the enemies of apple trees. It is what he calls an "apple tree borer" and is an insect that bores its way into the heart of the tree to live here for two years and the third year bore its way out when its wings develop and it flies away as a moth. Mr. Patton had samples from his orchard which showed what these insects were doing and also had captured one of them and had it in a bottle. The agriculture experiment stations all over the country are fighting against these plagues.—Ashland Independent.

A SCHOOL PUPIL AT 72 YEARS OF AGE.

The following is taken from the Huntington Herald:

Seventy-two years of age and having taught seventy-eight school terms, Jas. W. Samples, of Clarksburg, is now enrolled as a student at Marshall College, the State Normal School, working for a diploma. Mr. Samples, who in addition to his long career as a school teacher, saw more than a year of service in the armies of the Confederacy, having served as a private in Company B, Twenty-sixth Virginia volunteers, is by far the oldest student ever enrolled at historic Marshall. He holds a first grade teachers' certificate but is ambitious to complete the course at Marshall and win his Normal diploma. Necessarily, not having been educated in any collegiate institution and his day having preceded that of the modern high school, he has not formal "credits," but he has taught himself and is confident of his ability to secure credits for much of the work at Marshall merely by taking examinations. However, he cannot graduate earlier than June 1917, as a year of resident work must be done at the school before a diploma can be granted.

Mr. Samples was born in Greenbrier county and educated there. He was last in school as a student in 1870, almost a half a century ago. He began teaching in 1866 and his work as an educator has scarcely been interrupted since that time. His last school, which closed a few weeks ago, was at Sugar Camp, Collins Settlement District, in Lewis county.

Mr. Samples came to Marshall to study as the result of his personal friendship to President O. I. Woodley. These two met for the first time at the state teachers' association in Phillips, three years ago. They renewed their acquaintance a year later at Clarksburg and there became very warm friends. Some time later Mr. Samples confided to Mr. Woodley his ambition to complete a course at a teachers' college and was told that he would be welcomed as a student at Marshall College.

Since he took up his studies there he has fitted admirably into the life of the school. There seems nothing incongruous about his presence there and his attendance upon the classes excites no comment or remark from students and teachers. Recently pictures were taken on the campus of Mr. Sample, the oldest student, and five year old Frederick Holawade, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Howlswade, of Fifth-av., the youngest pupil in the Model Department, standing together hand-in-hand.

Mr. Samples is living at one of the College Boarding clubs, and has his room at 638 Fifteenth-st. He expects to continue at Marshall for the Summer School work.

A NUMBER OF COUNTIES

In Contest For Biggest Sunday School
Attendance on Statewide Day,
May 7th.

Rev. George A. Joplin, general secretary of the Kentucky Sunday School Association, was in Lexington Friday attending the Sunday School Institute of the West Lexington Presbytery and spoke on "Go-To-Sunday-School-Day, May 7."

Mr. Joplin has just returned from Pulaski county and reported the people there thoroughly organized to bring out the largest number of people on that day. Somerset alone has fixed a goal of 3,000. All over the State greater interest is manifest this year than ever before and, Mr. Joplin said, it seems certain that the record of last year when one million people attended Sunday school on "Go-To-Sunday-School-Day" will be surpassed. Ashland has fixed a goal of 10,000; Frankfort of 5,000; Louisville and Jefferson county is aiming for 100,000. Henry county has 14,000 population and is striving to get 10,000 to Sunday school on May 7. The committee in Henry county has challenged any county in the State to have as large a percentage of its population out.

In a number of cases counties are in contests. Woodford and Scott and competing with each other. Campbell has sent a challenge to Kenton, even the Kenton has ten thousand more people in it. There is a spirited three-cornered contest or between Carter, Johnson and Lawrence counties.

The result of the establishment of this special day has been the adding of one hundred thousand new members to the permanent membership of the Sunday schools of the State. Many of other States are following the lead of Kentucky in having this special day and the International committee has congratulated the Kentucky Sunday School Association on starting a movement that has such large and far reaching possibilities.

Mr. Joplin went to Stanton today, where a district conference of the Sunday schools of Powell county will be held Sunday.

SPECIAL EASTER SERVICES.

The celebration of Easter in the churches of the city Sunday was general and in the two Methodist churches special music featured the program while the sermons of the ministers were appropriate for the day.

The attendance at these churches was large and the pastors expressed their gratification over the success of the services.

There was no pastor at that time for the Baptist church and Mr. Dial, of the Christian church, was not here. Rev. L. M. Copley filled the pulpit at the Christian church Sunday evening.

OIL FIELDS BRING $180,000 A MONTH

ESTILL COUNTY WELLS YIELD
MORE THAN TAXABLE VALUE.

Irvine, Ky., April 24.—With one hundred and sixteen producing oil wells, the approximate income at the present time from this source of revenue in Estill county is $180,000 a month or more than two million dollars a year. The taxable value of real estate in the county, after adding the recent advance of twelve per cent, amounts to one million nine hundred and four thousand dollars.

It will be observed that the income of the internal resources is of greater value than the surface, including the improvements thereon.

All of this added wealth has been brought about within the past eighteen months and the field is only partially developed. About five hundred men are connected with the oil and gas industry and they represent a splendid type of business men.

New men are coming in daily and the hotels are always crowded. Many of the oil men are camping near the field of operation.—Lexington Herald.

PRETTY WEST VIRGINIA MISS LOCATED IN CINCINNATI.

A search of several days made for Nellie Dietz, 17, of Huntington, West Va., ended Saturday, when detectives found her at 408 West Eighth-st. She told the police and Miss Mary McChristie of the juvenile court that she married Francis DeLong in Newport, Ky., Tuesday night, and that he went to Cleveland Friday night to seek a job. Her romance, she declared, had its inception in correspondence resulting from an advertisement in a matrimonial paper. The girl is very pretty. A girl who gave the name of Mary Brown 19, of Huntington, West Va., who was found with Mrs. DeLong, said she had come from Huntington with her.—Times-Star.

Freedom from the juvenile detention home, parental forgiveness and welcome back to the arms of her mother, not only for herself but for her newly-wed husband, were among the joys experienced yesterday by Mrs. Nellie Dietz DeLong, seventeen year old Huntington, (W. Va.) girl upon the arrival in Cincinnati at her parent.

The girl had been held by local authorities upon the request of her mother in an effort to prevent the girl's marriage to Francis DeLong, 30 years old, Elkhardt, Ind., electrician. She left her home in Huntington last Tuesday, came to Cincinnati, met DeLong and they journeyed to Newport, Ky., where they procured a license and were married. They then returned to Cincinnati and took up their residence at 408 West Eighth-st.

Hardly had they begun their honeymoon when Mrs. DeLong received word that her mother was coming to Cincinnati, and that the latter was furious over her wedding. To prevent husband and mother meeting, Mrs. DeLong bade him return to his work at Elkhardt while she paved the way for parental forgiveness.

At the time she was taken into the custody of the Cincinnati authorities it was reported that DeLong had deserted her. At police headquarters she made strenuous denial of the story and declared her husband left her at her request. She was radiant as she told the officers that her mother had forgiven her, and promised to accept her husband as a son, and that she had telegraphed him to come to Huntington.

The mother was present with the daughter and she corroborated these statements. She said she had objected to her daughter's marriage on account of her youth, but now had no further objection and desired both to return to Huntington.

When mother and daughter departed from police headquarters they said they would leave Cincinnati this morning for Huntington, and that Mr. DeLong would meet them there this evening.

VILLA LOCATED WEST OF PARRAL.

San Antonio, Tex., April 24.—Reports from Gen. Pershing today indicated that Francisco Villa had been located again, this time west of Parral, in the mountains of Western Chihuahua. He was last reported at Nonava, eighty-five miles southwest of Steato. The reports indicated that Villa was wounded, but only slightly, and that he was far from being incapacitated. Gen. Funston regarded the information that Gen. Pershing had secured as authentic. No troops have been sent in pursuit because, it was said, such a campaign could be successfully conducted only after many more troops had been sent into Mexico.

Unofficial reports to-day indicated that Gen. Carranza had sent gradually into the north an army much larger than that of the American forces, and that a great part of it is in a position to conduct a pursuit of Villa, and his scattered organizations.

LOOKING OVER THE DISTRICT.

Jackson, Ky., April 24.—Ryland C. Musick, of Jackson, who has been frequently mentioned as a probable candidate for Congress from the Ninth district, has issued a letter to his friends throughout the district in which he says that he will not make known his decision until he has been over the district.

CELEBRATION OF PASTOR'S TWENTIETH WEDDING DAY

SURPRISE "CHINA WEDDING" ARRANGED BY FRIENDS OF REV. AND MRS. McELDOWNEY.

The home of the Rev. and Mrs. McEldowney was the scene of some pleasant festivities on Saturday evening, April the 22nd, the occasion being the celebration of their china wedding, the twentieth anniversary of what must have been a very happy marriage. Everything pertaining to this affair had been planned, provided for and prepared by a large number of their friends and the recipients were unaware that anything of the kind was to occur. To keep them from any such suspicions was no easy job, under the circumstances, and required considerable diplomacy. The guests of the home, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Knapp, of Charleston, W. Va., and Virgil McEldowney, the eldest son and his college chum, Robert McClung, of Morris Harvey, were expected to arrive on the evening train. The family and their guests were invited to take supper at the Louisville Inn which invitation they accepted. So far, so good. How to have them put in the time between supper and the hour appointed for the reception was the question. This was answered by calling Mr. McEldowney to a meeting at the office of Mr. August Snyder. Mrs. McEldowney remained at the hotel until she was sent for. When the time came that his presence was needed at home he was "phoned" from his house to come. He declined, but was told there was a man there who wanted to see him on particular business and he must come. Being still unwilling to leave the meeting the other members said they would go with him. He invited them to go and they went. Mrs. McEldowney was sent for at the proper time and was still unsuspecting of what was about to happen. Meanwhile the two hundred and more guests were arriving, singly and in squads and as they say in war times in battalions until every room on the lower floor of the house was full to overflowing. Before the arrival of the host and hostess the present intended for them had been brought in and displayed on the table in the dining room. It consisted of a full dinner set of Haviland china, white with gold band, a most elegant and highly appropriate and appreciated gift, presented by his church and congregation and other friends. With this was a profusion of bride's roses making a huge bouquet, lovely to look upon. After the china had been inspected and admired by the prominent preacher and popular pastor and his winsome, womanly wife and his bunch of bustling, bright boys, Prof. E. M. Kennison, in a few eloquent, well chosen words, presented the bride's blossoms to her for whom they were intended. Mrs. L. E. McEldowney, who made a fitting response to Mr. Kennison's words. Rev. N. H. Young, Mr. McEldowney and his son, Virgil, and others made remarks which were appropriate and well received. Mrs. McEldowney, who is at all times eloquent when publicly speaking, was herself on this occasion and in his voice were tones which betrayed deep feeling which the occasion wrought in his heart. After the speechmaking was over the wants of the inner man or woman were well looked after. Right here we would like to borrow from Mr. McEldowney's store of adjectives to describe or to do justice to the excellence of the brick ice cream and the cake which was so abundantly and deliciously in evidence. It was partaken of with a zest which betokened good appetites and fine digestion. It was in all respects a most delightful social event.

"Music rose with its voluptuous swell
And all went merry as a marriage bell."

So said Byron speaking of one occasion, "and bright the lamps shone o'er fair women." Louisa is noted for these and they were there on this occasion in large numbers and were fair to look upon. Instrumental music was furnished by Miss Opal Spencer at the piano and Mr. Rowland Horton, saxophone artist. These two played well and were liberal with their favors. Appropriately enough they played the Perfect Day at the presentation of the bride's bouquet. The vocal soloists of the evening were Miss Paulette Davis and Miss Kate Freese, whose ability of this fine accomplishment is well known. Some fine choral music was also rendered.

Before the separation of the guests from their hosts the bride's cake was cut, the cutting being eagerly watched to see who might get a prize. The silver dime was in a slice which was given to Mrs. W. W. Mason, but who did not know she had gained it until her father, Mr. J. W. Yates, began to eat a piece of it and bit on the coin. Miss Paulette Davis was lucky enough to get the piece which contained the ring, the name of the individual who got the darned needle is unknown to the NEWS. This cake, by the by, was made by Mrs. P. H. Vaughan and was a queen quality concoction.

A unique feature of the pleasant occasion was the writing of the names of those present in a book for that purpose which will no doubt be carefully kept and treasured by Mr. and Mrs. McEldowney, as a souvenir of the occasion which we believe they enjoyed as much as did their numerous guests which is saying a great deal. When "good nights" were said each guest had something to say testifying to their appreciation afforded them to be present and to wish for their hosts

"many returns." The out-of-town guests were Miss Louise Arnold, of Columbus, O., Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Knapp, of Charleston, W. Va., Mr. Robt. McClung, a student of Morris Harvey college, Barboursville, W. Va., and Miss Paulette Davis, of Hopkinsville.

In looking this over we see where we were more than once somewhat alliterative, but we could not help it. It is impossible to sit Sunday after Sunday and listen to this popular parson use his battery of vivid verbs and pungent, pleasing participles without absorbing at least a few of them and so we were only too glad to get back at him for once in our life.

REQUISITION ASKED FOR "ROADSPORT."

The Ashland Independent says: Mayor Salsbury late yesterday evening received a picture of the negro under arrest at Newcastle, Pa., on suspicion of being "Roadsport," one of the men who had a part in the murder of C. & O. Engineer Jas. Gibson.

The Mayor took the picture to Catlettsburg, where he showed it to "Bill" Bailey, a negro who is being held as a witness in the case. When asked if he had ever seen the man whose picture was handed him, he said, "Why, that's 'Roadsport.' Jailer and Mrs. DeBord both said that the picture greatly resembled that of a man who had been confined in jail by the name of Williams, which is 'Roadsport's' real name."

C. & O. Officer L. Y. Johnson went to Frankfort this afternoon for requisition papers and as soon as they are granted an officer will go to Newcastle and bring the accused to Catlettsburg for trial. There is a reward of $300 each for the arrest of "Roadsport," "Blue Steel" and "Stonewall," negroes implicated with "Black Texas," who was executed in connection with Gibson's death.

ENFORCE THE CITY ORDINANCES.

A petition, numerously signed, is being circulated, asking the enforcement of an ordinance which was recently passed by the city council to prevent unmuzzled dogs from running at large. It is right for the safety of our people and for other reasons that this ordinance should be rigidly enforced.

EXPLOSION AT NEW DAM.

National Contract Company's Plant Opposite New Richmond, Razed By Blast, Following Fire.

Residents of New Richmond, Ohio, and vicinity were awakened early yesterday morning by a terrific explosion of powder and dynamite, which followed in the wake of a fire that partially destroyed the plant of the National Contract company, across the river from New Richmond. The loss is estimated at $10,000.

The explosives were stored in a frame structure on the site of the dam the company is building for the Government. Buildings in New Richmond were shaken by the blast. The fire is supposed to have been started by sparks from a C. and O. engine.

Buildings, machinery, tools and material of the company either were destroyed or damaged. The temporary office of the Government engineers is a total loss, together with all blue prints and records kept therein.

In his report to Major George R. Spaulding, in charge of Cincinnati District No. 1, Corps of Engineers, Evan P. Bone, junior engineer, estimates the loss to the Government at between $500 and $1,000.

Major Spaulding says the loss of the records will not delay the work on the dam, as duplicates are kept on file in the Cincinnati office.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

A three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Hatfield, who live about one mile and a half back of Ashland, on Hobbs creek, was so badly burned Sunday morning when his clothing caught fire from an open grate, that he died Monday morning.

The mother was out milking and the father was enroute to his work at the furnace when the child's clothing caught fire.

Another son and daughter put out the flames, but not before the little boy's body was almost burned to a crisp, and his throat was burned deeply by flames it swallowed. The other children were badly burned about the hands and arms.

HAS CALLED A PASTOR.

The Baptist church of this city has called the Rev. W. A. Gaugh of Memphis, Tenn., as its pastor. Mr. Gaugh was here a few weeks ago and preached two excellent sermons which were acceptable to the membership. After a consideration of the matter the church extended a call to the minister which has been accepted by him and he will be here Sunday, April 30th, at which time he will preach the first sermon of his pastorate. Mr. Gaugh has a wife and two children and comes highly recommended as a preacher and a man.

COL. LAMPTON SAYS ITS A BIG BARGAIN

GETS DOWN TO "BRASS TACKS" ON WHAT WE ARE FURNISHING.

The following from Col. W. J. Lampton, the Kentucky humorist transplanted to New York City several years ago, is presented for the consideration of our readers. We appreciate Col. Lampton's view of the great bargains we are offering our readers. We modestly admit the force of his observation and argument. Now is the time to subscribe:

Mr. Editor:—I was so struck by the new appearance of the NEWS of April 14 that I took a few minutes off to sum up what you were offering your readers in that one issue, and would you believe it, there were five hundred separate and distinct items of news? Can any other 8-page country newspaper equal it? Less than 2 cents, each reader pays for 500 news articles. For one dollar he gets 52 times as many, or twenty-six thousand news items. Oh, say, ain't you giving them too much for their money? However, what other Kentucky country paper can line up with the NEWS for news? W. J. LAMPTON.

The audit indicates that there is due the county and districts of the county over $12,000, of which over $2,000 is due from former Sheriff J. W. Chambers. Campbell.

CLEAN UP DAY.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday have been designated as clean up days for Louisa. Nearly every city, town and village in the State of Kentucky has its appointed time for being made clean, and our own city should not fall in the rear of the procession, but enter fully into the spirit of the occasion and try to be first and foremost in the effort to be clean. Louisa is a pretty little town. Nature has made it so, but the carelessness or indifference of its people have allowed it, at times, at least, to look quite the reverse. There should be some organized effort along the lines of endeavor, and all pull together. For goodness sake clean the streets, if you do no more. Take away all unsightly boxes, barrels, boards and brush heaps. Let nothing remain unsightly which can be taken away. And, for heaven sake don't forget your own back yard.

CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNED.

Circuit court adjourned today, after a three weeks term, in which much business was transacted. There were several misdemeanor convictions and two convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary. Jasper Brewster, for cutting his brother with intent to kill, confessed and was given two years, and James Eubank, colored, was given five years for the killing of Ed Boose at Glen Alum last January. The trial of Paris Daniels for killing Phillip Eckart at Blocton January 2, was put off until next court on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Daniels, who is one of the main witnesses. All other cases were laid over until next term of court, July 1.—Williamson News.

LOGAN COUNTY MAN IS SLAIN.

John Hatfield, Sheriff Harris said, killed a sheriff at Logan County House, W. Va., 22 years ago, and escaped. "Charlie Owens" was serving a life term in the Arkansas penitentiary for the murder of a negro. He escaped January 20.—Herald-Dispatch.

McEldowney, a talented divine of Louisa, Ky., is delivering some splendid sermons and the public is cordially invited to attend these meetings. Services at 2 and 7 p. m. The pastor, Rev. Caton, and Rev. McEldowney are giving out golden nuggets of gospel truths and all who attend cannot fail but be benefited spiritually and otherwise.—Morehead Mountaineer.

SUNDAY.

That the United States Government has prepared for every possible contingency in case of a diplomatic break with Germany, first among which is consideration of the welfare of Americans in Germany, was evident yesterday, despite the secrecy of Washington officials. The Berlin was surprised by the drastic terms of the American note demanding reform of the submarine warfare was indicated from diplomatic dispatches, which, however, are not made public. Significance was found in indications of a possible request for further information or delay on the part of Berlin, but it was said the United States would have no delay unless Germany declares modification of the submarine warfare. No break with Germany's allies is contemplated, even though Germany's reply should call for such a contingency with that country.

MONDAY.

Redirection of the troops in Mexico with the approval of President Wilson was announced yesterday by Secretary Baker, and this was taken to mean that the withdrawal of the American expeditionary force, apparently so imminent within the past few days, has been postponed. The outlines of the new orders which were suggested by Gen. Funston and approved by Gen. Scott show that the American troops will be concentrated at several points in Northern Mexico and their duty will be to police that section south of the border to prevent further raids. The announcement of yesterday stated that this would be done until Gen. Carranza demonstrated his ability to capture or crush the Villa bandits.

Announcement was made by Mexican officials at Juarez that Pablo Lopez, who took part in the message of seven Americans at Santa Ysabel and the Columbus raid, had been captured by Mexicans near the scene of his first outrage.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Theford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught.

Theford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

Your druggist sells and recommends Theford's Black-Draught. Price only 25c. Get a package to-day.

CANNING BEETS BEST WAY TO KEEP FOR WINTER USE.

Many vegetables may be had during the cold months in the fresh state if properly stored, but it is not infrequent that the varieties which keep well are of rather inferior quality. Then too some vegetables grown for storage attain large size, and are put away at a time after they have passed the stage of growth at which they are most palatable. Such a vegetable is the beet, and in order to get the most satisfaction out of this popular root it is necessary to resort to the canning process.

Although beets for canning may be grown at any time during the growth season, since the operation of preserving can be done at any time, it is nevertheless true that this vegetable thrives best during the cool spring months. The size beet to be preferred for canning is one ranging from one inch to one and three-quarters in diameter. Those coming in this class would be packed as fancy, while those exceeding this limit would constitute a standard pack or grade. Quality, not size, is the character to be desired in a canned product, and a quick unchecked period of growth is one of the essential factors in obtaining this desirable condition.

To secure the quick growth, it is necessary that the garden should be liberally enriched. For this purpose nothing is better than well rotted barn manure. If the supply of such manure is limited it may profitably be supplemented by the use of nitrate of soda scattered very thinly along the rows (but not on the plants) and worked into the ground with the next cultivation.

Beet seed should be sown rather thickly in drills one foot apart in a well prepared seed bed as soon as the ground is workable in the spring. When the young seedlings become well established they should be thinned to about two inches between the plants. About two ounces of seed are required to sow 100 feet of drill. Subsequent treatment will consist chiefly in weeding and cultivating, and neither practice should be abandoned until the beets are pulled.

The work of cultivation can be done with a light garden hoe, but one of the simple wheel hoes or light garden cultivators will make the work quicker and easier. Although cultivation induces a rapid growth and results in the development of which the vegetable is capable, one should not be misled into the idea that repeated cultivation and good care alone can transform an inferior variety into one of superior quality. Quality is largely a matter of variety, so for this reason one should exercise judgment in his selection of varieties and choose only those possessing the character sought.

The variety for canning should not only be of high quality but should also be of the dark red turnip shaped type. The lighter types are undesirable for canning purposes. The following varieties are of known merit and can be recommended for canning: Detroit Dark Red, Edmond's Early Blood and Model Red Globe or Dark Stinson.—Bi-Monthly Bulletin.

A BOY'S PIG PROFITS.

Raymond Williams, of Texas, joined a pig club last spring. Selecting a two-months-old Duroc pig weighing 41 pounds, he commenced feeding it early in April. Grazing his pig on oats, Bermuda grass, and alfalfa, he fed a supplementary feed of shorts and maise chops, some skim milk, and toward the end some cottonseed meal. Several months later the pig was killed, and it dressed 395 pounds. The meat, lard, sausage, etc., when sold at retail brought $51.65, and gave the boy a net profit of $23.31. The total cost, including feed, original cost of pig, and cost of killing, cutting and refrigeration, was $28.34. The net profit of $23.31 was approximately twice as much if the pig had been sold on the hoof.

Good stock, a good start before weaning pasture, a balanced ration, a mineral mixture always before the pig, and the work and care of an industrious boy all contributed to this successful pig feeding.

URGING FISH PONDS.

The Bureau of Fisheries of the U. S. Department of Commerce is seeking to induce the farmers of Kentucky and those of other agricultural States to establish fish ponds on their farms. The bureau aims especially to influence the utilization of the natural and favorable water areas existing on countless farms which at present are being put to no use, many of them constituting unsightly waste spaces that detract from the value of the land. The bureau points out that the presence of springs, lakes, flowing wells or adjacent streams are leading incentives to a fish project, and suitable sites for the construction of ponds should make their use for such a purpose desirable to the thrifty husbandman after a full comprehension of their possibilities in a fish cultural way.

How Machines do Our Shorthand, Our Bookkeeping, Our Adding, Our Typing, Our Talking,

No hand work can be as accurate as Machine Work.

Our Shorthand Machine—the Stenotype prints shorthand in just the same letters you learned when you were six years old. No hieroglyphics—just plain A, B, C's, which anyone can read.

Have you seen it? Well you have something of interest still to see. Make your mind up to look into this little device to-day. It will pay you to do it.

Don't stand still. Don't go backwards. Remember what you said about the Adding Machine, a few years ago.

Write us about your wishes, your ambitions. You will not be the first boy or girl, by many hundreds we have helped solve the problem of "How to make a living."

Are you thinking of training for a profession or a trade?

We used to say "The quickest way to success in any profession is learning Shorthand." We still say so, but by all means learn it the "Machine Way."

Our School has added Shorthand Machines just as we added, years ago, Typewriters, Adding Machines, Mimeographs. (And we have not forgotten to keep them MODERN), etc., because the Public demands new and up-to-date facilities for making the busy man's work easy.

Modern Bookkeeping is very little like what it was thirty years ago.

ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

RED BIRD.

MATTIE.

Death visited the home of Cleveland Hays on April 9th and took from him his darling wife Belle. The death angel took dear Belle to her dear home on high. Her body was laid to rest in the Mary Chapel graveyard on Georges creek. She died with that dreadful disease consumption. Her funeral was attended to by Bro. Lamertus and Bro. Green A. Pack. The lodge of Red Men showed their respect to their brother's wife. Weep not dear friends for she has gone to join that sweet company with the Lord. She was a loving sister. She would often greet her friends with a smile and kind words. She leaves a husband, father, mother, sister, three brothers and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

A FRIEND.

RURAL JOYRIDERS.

Anyone who cares to take note of the proportion of rural and small town automobilists among the driver-owners who figure in Louisville accidents must be struck with the fact that Louisville drivers are much more careful than those of other cities. It is not hard to understand why this should be so. Little attention is paid to speed laws on country roads. Drivers who are habitual scorches on country roads and occasionally drive in city streets find habit second nature. They neglect proper precautions. Another cause of the comparative recklessness of country motorists may be that one of the favorite pastimes of the rural sections of Kentucky always has been to "split the pike wide open." Before the advent of automobiles a young man's happiness and in a measure his popularity among his social acquaintances, was determined by the speed and "beton" of his horse and by his willingness to take all of the risks of the road in the interest of defeating all rivals.

What could be more logical, and inevitable, than that the ideal of happiness and self-respect which governed the driving of horses should animate the driving of automobiles and that neighborhood rivalries for the palm for speed and recklessness still should be cherished?

But machinery is no respecter of persons, as the results of the fast driving of the ruralists amply prove. In the list of avoidable accidents, many of them fatal to the motorists and many fatal to others, the names of the hard-driving, small-town or country owner figure out of all proportion to the number of such owners as compared with the number of urban drivers.—Courier-Journal.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

WM. TAYLOR, of Glenwood, announces that he will be a candidate for Sheriff of Lawrence county, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the next primary election at which candidates for Sheriff are to be nominated.

We are authorized to announce Congressman W. J. FIELDS, of Carter-co., as a candidate for re-election, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the primary to be held in August, 1916. Your support is respectfully solicited.

We are authorized to announce that S. S. WILLIS, of Ashland, Boyd county, is a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from Seventh Appellate District, subject to the action of the Republican party at the primary to be held August 5, 1916.

We are authorized to announce LAFE WALTER as candidate for County Judge of Lawrence county subject to the action of the Republican party at the next primary at which the candidates for this office are to be nominated.

We are authorized to announce G. W. GOURLEY, of Beattyville, Ky., as a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from the Seventh Appellate District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Republican party at the Primary Election to be held August 5, 1916.

Friday, April 28, 1916.

This is nasty weather for the clean up of our little city.

The threatened break with Germany is not so imminent now as it was last week. The Kaiser's attitude seems to be one of conciliation and the strain has been considerably relieved.

Commissioner Blue, of West Virginia, is putting up a great fight against the violation of West Virginia's prohibition laws. He is having plenty to do, of course, but with a stringent law on his side he will eventually win out.

The situation in Mexico is very critical. The antagonism of the Mexican people in general has caused the search for Villa to be halted. Conferences between officials of the two governments are now being held. It is thought the United States troops will remain in Mexico indefinitely, but will depend upon the Carranza forces to continue the active pursuit of Villa.

The Republican leaders are still trying to evolve some kind of a solution to the middle over the double delegation at-large to the national convention, which must be cut from eight to four, according to the law laid down by the Republican National Committee. Ed Morrow and Phil Brown, the negro, are conceded places on the "Big Four," but the question is how to choose the other two from the list of six eligibles. None has as yet volunteered to step down and simplify the situation.

El Paso, April 22.—Executions and revolutions with mention of German money used in Mexico came from the "rumor factory" here today while the limping pursuit of Villa was almost overlooked. Gen. Blanco Nareta Torres and two others formerly connected with the Carranza cause have been executed at Guadalajara penitentiary, it is reported. They are said to have conspired against the first chief presumably with the Diaz party. The Carranza government is believed to be making wholesale arrests. Many other executions throughout the republic are reported. The determination of the de facto government to sweep away opposition is also indicated in the order to deport antagonistic foreigners. The Mexican revolutionists stationed in the United States are reported active despite the watch kept over them by the American secret service. The Diaz movement is believed to be the most formidable. Reports are in circulation that both the Carranza and Diaz movement have used German money.

S. S. WILLIS LEADS IN RACE FOR JUDGESHIP.

The Seventh Appellate district was sized up as follows in the Kentucky political columns in Sunday's Enquirer: Lexington, April 24.—The seven announced candidates for the Republican nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals, to succeed Judge C. C. Turner, are having a lively contest in the big Seventh Appellate District of 29 counties. The nomination ordinarily is equivalent to the election, but because of the split in the Republican party in 1912, Judge Turner was victorious over Judge Andrew Jackson Kirk, Paintsville, the Republican nominee, and Jno. D. White, Manchester, Progressive nominee, at the election in November of that year.

The terms on the Appellate bench are eight years, but in the winter of 1911 Judge Ed C. O'Rear resigned and in December of that year Governor A. E. Willson appointed Judge Robert H. Winn, Mt. Sterling, to serve until the following election.

Those now announced for the Republican nomination are Judge A. J. Kirk, Simeon S. Willis, Ashland; J. C. Faulkner, Hazard; Flem D. Sampson, Barboursville; G. W. Gourley, Beattyville; Roscoe Vanover, Pikeville and Cloen Calvert, Hyden.

From time to time others have been mentioned as likely to make the race, but well posted politicians in the district regard the list as made up with the probability that several of them will get out before the August primary. The leaders in the hunt appear, from information that has come by solicitation to the writer, to be Messrs. Willis, Kirk and Faulkner in the order named. Willis appears to have convinced the leaders in a large number of the counties not having a candidate in the field that he is entirely qualified—the boost that the Boyd County Bar Association gave him had much to do with this—and that he fills the bill of their desires for a new man, one who is unshackled by obligations of a political nature, and who is free to serve the people as they are intended by the constitution to be served.

Messrs. Kirk, Faulkner, Vanover, Calvert and Gourley have been before the people in previous races and all of them know how it feels to have another secure plum they wanted. Judge Sampson is on the Circuit Court bench in the Eleventh Congressional District.

CHARLEY.

Sunday school is progressing nicely. Mr. L. C. Hays, who has been sick for some time, is able to be out again. Mrs. Robert Brown is visiting home folks.

GUESS WHO.

Harry Dingman is in Ashland from Columbus, O., to assist in the prosecution of M. F. Borders, who is under indictment for being at the head of a conspiracy to take his life in order to collect his insurance money. Borders is to be tried this term of court.

Dingman, who has lost the use of his left arm as a result of a gun shot wound, says that when he returns to Columbus, he will take a place as clerk in a hotel.

M. E. CHURCH SOUTH.

It has been announced that the work of tearing down the old building of the M. E. Church South will begin next week. An architect has been engaged to make the plans for the new building and will complete them at the earliest possible time.

Bishop Denny will probably preach in Louisa on the evening of May 15th or 16th.

RALLY DAY FOR ALL SUNDAY SCHOOLS

LAWRENCE COUNTY SCHOOLS
URGED TO BEST EFFORTS
MAY 7TH.

To the men, women and children of Lawrence county:

I am appealing to you to rally to the banner of Lawrence county in the fierce struggle we are having with Carter county, which will be decided May 7, 1916. Carter county, through its splendid and energetic President, Mrs. Jno. W. Kitchen (binding every effort to have more people in the Sunday schools May 7th than we have in Lawrence county. They are saying over in Carter county, "If Johnson County can't beat you, we can." Now let every girl and boy and man and woman from every hillside and valley in old Lawrence respond. Pull the babies out of the cradles and take them to Sunday school on that day and then count those present fair and square and report by postal card or letter at once to M. S. BURNS, President L. C. A.

SUMMARY OF FIRST MONTH OF H. D. W.

The work of organization of Home Demonstration Clubs has been completed.

The clubs are at Louisa, Ledoclo, Yatesville, Estep, Trinity School of Glenwood, Trace Branch or Garred's Chapel, *Gallup, Cordell or Wilbur, Blaine, Tarklin, Potter or Fuller and Charley. Some changes may be made in the names of the clubs and there is a possibility of one or two more, and too there are many members other than at these places, however, the clubs have the advantage of many more things than the members who are not under a club.

The county has just about been covered in a general way, of course in so short a time, with so large a county, every place could not be visited personally, but in the future those wanting and desiring the assistance of the Home Demonstrator, have nothing to do but to write or call her.

Addresses have been made throughout the county, a total of 21; 252 miles have been traveled horseback, 122 on train and 24 on foot.

Complete organization was accomplished at Louisa and Gallup. The strongest support given was at Gallup by not only girls, but fathers and mothers. In one meeting all was done that it generally takes three meetings to do.

FARMERS COOPERATIVE DEMONSTRATION WORK.

The farmers of Blaine met Saturday evening at the Blaine school house for the purpose of organizing a farmers club.

The activities of circuit court and insufficient notice to the farmers caused a small attendance and the meeting to organize was set for the first Thursday night in May, at seven o'clock. However, a goodly number present, all of whom manifested an interest that is destined to place the farming industry first in Lawrence-co. At our next meeting a band will be present to give music and everybody is invited to be present that there will be no further delay in starting a club. The County Agent will discuss "silos," "how to raise and feed cattle," "how to procure a good soil on hill lands" and "best kind of hogs to raise."

The following is the program of the County Agent:

Saturday, April 29, 1:30 p. m. F. meeting, Buchanan.

Sunday, April 30, Estep.

Monday, May 1, 7:00 p. m., Ledoclo school house.

Tuesday, May 2, 7:00 p. m., Cordell school house.

Wednesday, May 3, 7:00 p. m., Tarklin school house.

Thursday, May 4, 7:00 p. m., Blaine town school house.

Friday, May 5, Skaggs.

Saturday, May 6, Louisa.

People in the neighborhood of the above places please notify the other fellow. A.C. YOUNG, County Agent.

Judge O'Rear is appearing in U. S. Court as chief counsel for the Consolidation Coal Company of Jenkins in a personal injury suit instituted against it by Bert Boggs, Ironton, Ohio, miner. The plaintiff seeks $25,000 for injuries suffered when the roof of a mine owned by the defendant company caved in, and charges that the defendant company was negligent in allegedly failing to provide a safe place for him to work.

Mrs. Lulu Defoe, 34 years old, was indicted by a grand jury in Huntington, W. Va., on a charge of first degree murder, it being alleged that she murdered Mrs. Rose McMaster February 19. The shooting occurred on a crowded street car, Mrs. Defoe believing that the other woman was eloping with her husband.

TO DECLARE ANOTHER DIVIDEND

Unless something unforeseen occurs the depositors in the defunct Citizens Bank, will, within the next few days, perhaps early next week, receive a twenty per cent dividend—making ninety-five per cent in all.

The twenty per cent will be paid by the stockholders, who will assume the responsibility of collecting the amount from outstanding accounts.

The special commissioner, Chas. Russell has already paid seventy-five per cent of the deposits from moneys which came into his hands through the regular course of collections.—Ashland Independent.

EUREKA.

MURDER AT FREEBURN.

While playing pool with a number of friends in the club house of the Freeburn Coal Co., at Freeburn, Ky., last Friday night, E. F. Bryant was shot and fatally wounded. It is alleged that Boyd Daniels was the gun user.

The shot was fired through an open window and the bullet penetrated Bryant's kidneys. The injured man was taken to the Welch hospital where he died at 10:30 Sunday night.

Daniels was captured soon after the shooting and was brought to the city, later being taken to Pikeville where he was held for trial under bond of $10,000.

Bryant was well known in Williamson and Mingo county. At one time he was store manager for the Red Jacket Coal Co., and held a similar position with the Ritter Lumber Co. at Devon. At the time of the shooting he was employed as supply clerk by the Freeburn company.

Mr. Bryant's daughter, Miss Reba attended school here for several years, making her home with Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Randolph, and was later in the employ of the local telephone company. Recently she was married to Mr. Geo. Bauswine, of Spring—Mingo Republican.

CAROLINE DUNEY BURGESS.

Death has again invaded our neighborhood. Mrs. Caroline Burgess, widow of Rev. Strother F. Burgess, who lived at Catalpa, Ky., was called to the great beyond, her health had been failing for some years past. She was bedfast only a short time before her death. Her death came as no surprise to her, she was standing on the watch tower, ready to contend the triumph over the last enemy, her peace was made with her Master, it was well with her soul.

Her maiden name was Durney, a daughter of John Durney, one of the early pioneers of Big Sandy, a good farmer, and a man of excellent reputation. He died about middle age, leaving a widow and four daughters, Caroline being the oldest. The widow Durney was a most excellent woman, much beloved by all who knew her, at her hands her daughters received the best of training, for which they always showed that appreciation that every child should show a good mother. After the death of Rev. Burgess, Mrs. Dodge, a sister of Caroline, died, leaving an only son, Harry Dodge, who was carefully brought up by Mrs. Burgess. She filled the place of a mother, and trained Harry in the way he should go. Harry has always showed his gratitude toward his aunt, by staying with her and helping her to carry on the farm, and he especially showed his great kindness toward her in her sickness and burial. In the death of sister Burgess, Harry lost his best friend, the church lost a faithful member, the neighborhood lost a most excellent neighbor. She will be greatly missed, the world has been benefited by her living in it. We say she is dead, yet we know she is alive in Christ and will live on and on to the great eternity.

Rev. J. H. Dawson preached her funeral at the Kavanaugh church of which she has been a member for many years. Her useful life can never be forgotten.

IN REGARD TO CANCERS.

I have been treating cancers for 7 or 8 years. For two years have treated an average of two cases per month, and have cured all of them except one man and he had a cancer in his mouth. So you see I have had wonderful success.

H. HUFF

R. 1, Box 87.

Fort Gay, W. Va.

Following are some testimonials:

Fort Gay, W. Va., Feb. 8, 1916.

I was treated for Cancer 40 days by one of the best doctors in the country and got no relief, then I tried doctoring with H. Huff. He took my cancer out and I was well in 30 days. That was Oct. 1914. He has cured 6 others I know, besides others I heard of and he will cure you if you have cancer. Give him a trial.

Yours respectfully,

I. M. LESTER.

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 1, 1915.

To whom it may concern, and it should concern every person that has a cancer: I speak from experience no person need fear to have Mr. H. Huff, of Fort Gay, W. Va., treat their cancer. I had a rose cancer on my temple about 6 in. circumference. Raw all over the surface, the edges rolled over to my cheek. Mr. Huff treated it last April and I am happy to say it is all gone, cured sound and well. He has the remedy and knows how to use it. I am now 73 years old. I would advise all persons having cancer or symptom of cancer to have it treated at once. It is easier cured and saves a great deal of suffering and the danger of its being absorbed in the blood.

THE HOME CIRCLE AND ITS INTERESTS.

Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join The Home Circle at Evening Tide.

Of all places on earth, home is the most delicate and sensitive. Its chords move with a breath; its fires are kindled with a spark; its flowers are bruised with the least rudeness. Here our hearts wear no covering, no armor. Every arrow strikes them, every old wave blows full upon them. If we would have a true home, we must guard well our thoughts and actions.

The man who never praises his wife deserves to have a poor one. And the man who praises a good wife more than he deserves hasn't been born yet.

When crepe on the door tells of a mother gone, only those who have moistened a mother's grave with their tears can fully understand and read aright the black threads in the bow.

Sometimes the hasty word has been spoken, the sharp, snappish word been carelessly uttered in the home circle. The true wife's heart so often bleeds at the bitter, thoughtless, but cutting word of a husband. When she is gone to heaven, and he "weeps o'er her bier" he will remember it.

There are none of us so poor but we can train a few roses on the humble wall and their scent and beauty will long be remembered, and many a boy instead of going to loaf upon the public highway will linger at home among the flowers. Moral degradation always begins at home.

There are many happy homes, thank God, in every community, and when they exist there goes out from them a blessed influence which can hardly be over estimated. "A real home with a mother in it," whose hospitable doors are ever open to those not so blessed, is a wonderful power for good.

Many a child goes astray, not because there is a want of prayer or virtue at home, but simply because home lacks sunshine. A child needs smiles as much as flowers need sunshine.

We know from sad experiences that it is very inconvenient to be poor, but no man is poor who has a happy home and it does not require lace curtains or velvet carpets to make a home happy.

The virtues grow about the home. They cluster, bloom and shed their perfume around the fireside. Love, husband, wife, father, mother, child and home—without those words the world would be a barren wilderness, and men and women but brutish beasts.

Let us take time to get acquainted with our families. The wealth you are accumulating may be a doubtful blessing to the son who is a stranger to you. Your beautifully kept house, busy mother, can never be a home to the daughter whom you have no time to caress.

When hearts are broken and friends fall, this active stirring world of ours makes room for us all to go to work and forget our troubles. If it were not for something to do and the chance to do it, what would become of the mother when her baby dies? Do you think she would ever recover from such an anguish if she found nothing to do but clasp the empty cradle and fondle the unused garments? Be taken up by doing then, Oh, broken hearted children of our common parent, sorry. So shall the heart heal and the balm be yielded. Work will keep off pity's pension list and maintain in your bosom the soul of a steadfast soldier rather than that of a whimperer and a craven. Thank the destiny that sends you many tasks for prompt fulfillment and many perplexing things for wise adjustment, otherwise you would never forget the wound that throbs with fresh pain whenever night comes and the duties of the day are hushed to rest.

A happy home does not result from a large income. A large amount of love, plenty of good sense and a very little money will make a happy home circle.

Never think you can afford to be dowdy at home. Cleanliness, hair well dressed, and a smile will make calico look like silk in the eyes of a father or brother.

Why is it that we so easily forget that the little things in life are what make it easy or hard? A few pleasant words, a warm hand clasp, a cordial letter, are simple things, but they are mighty in their influence on the lives of those about us, adding a ray of hope to many disconsolate hearts, giving a bit of courage to disappointed, weary ones and helping to make our own lives sweeter at the same time.

You will never have a friend if you must have one without a fault.

It is one of the paradoxes of life that the more a woman keeps her husband in hot water the colder he grows toward her.

Most good men have had good mothers.

A TRUE LOVER

For the Children

Snow and Ice Make Sport For Little Folks.

Not for many years have the children of New York enjoyed such a winter as the weather man has provided this year. There have been half a dozen snowstorms, and some of the time the lakes have been covered with ice for skaters. You may easily believe that skates and sleds have been much in use. Little New Yorkers do not let such opportunities go to waste, for some of them remember winters when there was not snow or ice enough to give them a chance to enjoy the sports of winter. The young lad in the picture has probably seen very little snow in his lifetime. However, he is making up for whatever time he has lost. His name is Duncan van Norden, and he was shoveling snow in Central park when the camera man happened along.

The Chickens' Surprise Party.

In southern California the dry season lasts from six to eight months, so there were some good sized chicks in our yard that had never seen rain, writes a correspondent of the Orange Judd Farm.

One morning a little cloud suddenly began to send down some big drops on the dry soil. The chicks evidently thought some one was throwing grain to them. They flew at the drops, this way and that, trying to pick them up. Peck as fast as they would they could not get a bite of anything. They heard the patter; they saw the spots on the ground; they jumped about like crazy chickens, pushed each other about and looked skyward in their funny sideways fashion.

When the shower became heavy they flew to shelter, huddled together and cheeped pitifully. How we wished we could have understood what they said to each other about them!

The River Jordan.

Among famous rivers must always be included the Jordan, nearly as sacred to Christians as the Ganges is to the Hindus because of the baptism of Christ in its waters. The Jordan, except near its source, is below the level of the ocean, and the Dead sea, where it empties, is a quarter of a mile below the surface of the Mediterranean.

There are four old fords of the Jordan. At one of these on the Monday before Easter the pilgrims of the Greek church, often thousands in number, who have come down from Jerusalem escorted by Turkish soldiers, perform the well known ceremony of bathing in the sacred stream. A short distance below this is the point where the river loses itself in the lifeless waters of the Dead sea.

Natural Snow Bridges.

A slow thaw, following a heavy fall of snow, is almost sure to form, here and there, miniature natural bridges of snow, over which a rabbit or even a fox might run without crushing the short span. According to the lay of the land, the melted snow water collects at a certain place and gradually eats its way under another part not melting so rapidly, and this tunnel, growing larger from the increasing water, soon forms the span. In the same manner natural bridges of earth and rock are formed after hundreds of centuries of erosion, while the snow bridges are formed in a few hours and often disappear as quickly.

Under the Bridge.

Under the bridge the trains go by. With whistle and shriek and puff, And I mean to go right off in a train When I am big enough.

I shall go to a land where bananas grow, And oranges, too, on trees; Where every one eats whatever he likes And no one says, "If you please."

I shall drink my milk from a coconut And munch the sugar cane, And when I am tired of that faroff land, Why, I'll come home again!

Making the Little Farm Pay

By C. C. BOWSFIELD

"Tell us how to get winter eggs and we will rise up and call you blessed." This sentence is in a letter received from a woman poultry owner.

The failure to get eggs in winter, when they are high priced, is a common experience, and it is one of the bad phases of the poultry business. Experts who have brought their hens up to a profitable basis are getting eggs most of the year, and what a few have done many more can do. It is not a matter of luck at all. A regular system of management must be followed.

Any general purpose breed or any of the small egg producing breeds will answer the requirements of the average poultry owner. In view of the importance of marketing a certain proportion of poultry meat every season it may be best to adopt one of the medium sized breeds, such as Plymouth Rock, Wyandotte, Orpington, or Rhode Island Red. It is worth keeping in mind that in all the great egg laying contests in recent years these fowls have more than held their own with the Leghorns. Whatever stock is decided on, it is best to work toward full blooded poultry.

Select eggs for hatching from chickens of high productive capacity and hatch in March. Then select pullets to the desired number for the following winter and give some attention all summer to their condition. Keep only vigorous, healthy chickens. Make them keep up a steady growth. These will be the best winter layers, starting their regular production when five or six months old. Hens a year older will rank next. Do not keep hens more than two winters unless they are superior for breeding purposes. They will not produce many eggs, compared to pullets, but if they have been great producers it is well to retain a few of them for a couple of years longer.

Nothing new can be said about the manner of housing poultry. The buildings must be dry and clean, well ventilated and free from drafts. Open front houses give the best ventilation. A floor can be made dry without great expense. It is a good plan to fill in the foundation with small stones and gravel to insure drainage. This can be covered with earth or cement. Board floors are favored by some owners. One of the first points in cleanliness is to have a feeding room separate from the roosting quarters. Nests are better in the feeding room than close to the roosts. To have any success worth while the premises must be kept free from vermin. This is not difficult, but it requires persistent effort and watchfulness. Anybody who will not give heed to this injunction should keep out of the poultry business.

The principles which govern feeding are no less important than the others, but fortunately it is not necessary to have a great proportion of the higher priced grains. One great essential is variety. One gets a balanced ration most suitable for egg production by providing a regular supply of green food to go with dry material through the winter months. It is easy to provide sprouted oats, cabbage or beets. It is also necessary and easy to keep the chickens supplied with meat scrap and ground bone. Taking one season with another, no grains are cheaper than corn and oats, but it is best to have the oats clipped or ground and the corn cracked.

Where a certain amount of green feed is regularly supplied it is hardly necessary to give wet mash. A dry mash fed in hoppers is preferable. At the same time a warm mash of moistened bran and shorts is not a bad thing on a cold day. A small supply of skim milk improves the poultry house diet and is cheap. The stale bread and crackers obtainable at restaurants and bakeries cost little and to some extent take the place of grain. Clean water and grit should be within reach at all times. Charcoal and oyster shell are excellent articles for poultry. It is best to have a clean scratching floor for chickens, and every morning the fowls should be required to scratch in a litter of straw or chaff for wheat, corn, sunflower seeds and such things. This gives wholesome exercise. See that the laying hens are not too fat, but they must be kept vigorous and hearty. In supplying feed according to these suggestions one cannot go far astray.

WHAT THE DOCTOR KNOWS.

KIDNEYS MUST BE RIGHT TO INSURE HEALTH.

Few people realize to what extent their health depends upon the condition of their kidneys.

The physician in nearly all cases of serious illness, makes a chemical analysis of the patient's urine. He knows that unless the kidneys are doing their work properly, the other organs cannot readily be brought back to health and strength.

When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way, serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's Disease, which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, caused nearly ten thousand deaths in one year, in the State of New York alone. Therefore, it is particularly necessary to pay more attention to the health of these important organs.

An ideal herbal compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

The mild and healing influence of this preparation, in most cases, is soon realized, according to sworn statements and verified testimony of those who have used the remedy.

When your kidneys require attention, get Swamp-Root at once from any pharmacy. It is sold by every druggist in bottles of two sizes—50c and $1.00.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Louis weekly Big Sandy News.

LETCHER COUNTY AND WHITESBURG.

What is Happening in this Rich Coal Territory of Kentucky.

WHITESBURG, KY., April 25.—After closely investigating conditions in Letcher county violations of the law, the grand jury closed a two weeks session Saturday morning having returned 231 indictments, 131 of which were for violations of the local option laws, the traffic of whiskey largely in the coal fields sections. The investigations along the lines of the illegal sale of whiskey was especially complete and thorough, as were pistol toting and 32 indictments were returned for the latter evil. Judge John F. Butler is fully determined to put whiskey and its sale out of his district and pistol toting. He will thus decrease the wave of crime and lawlessness rampant in the county at least ninety per cent. It is expected that the circuit court will continue the remainder of the week.

The case of the commonwealth against E. L. Miller and Walter Stewart charged with the murder of Police-man Ed W. Boggs in Dunham in the coal fields last November was fought out in the circuit court during the past week, the men being tried separately. Miller received a life term sentence in the penitentiary Thursday night and Friday morning the trial of Stewart was begun resulting in a verdict in the afternoon. He received from 10 to 21 years in the penitentiary. Jno. Horn of Hazard the third man held in the Boggs murder will be tried during the present week. Much interest was manifested in the trials of Miller and Stewart. They came from Campbell-co., Tenn., and were employed in the coal fields at the time of the murder.

Saturday morning the case of the commonwealth against James Collier a Cumberland river farmer charged with seduction of his little 12 year old daughter, Easter Collier, was called in the Letcher circuit court, and the jury selected the taking of evidence was begun. A delay occurred Saturday evening owing to the absence of two important witnesses for the commonwealth. Officers were sent to Cumberland river for the witnesses and it is said now that the trial will not be resumed until tomorrow. The grand jury a few days ago investigated the Collier case, returned an indictment and Judge John F. Butler at once set the case down for trial at this term. This is the only case of the kind that ever came up in the circuit court, and, owing to the unusual circumstances connected thereto much interest is centered in the trial.

Mrs. Walter Fletcher, aged 23, attempted suicide at her home in East Whitesburg Saturday afternoon by taking an overdose of carbolic acid. Physicians who were immediately summoned stated that the draught would not end fatally. No cause is given for her rash act. Mr. Fletcher was in Virginia at the time.

A pretty wedding occurred at the residence of Eld. John A. Craft here Friday evening when Mr. Elbert Fuzate, aged 21, of McRoberts was married to Miss Jessie Hogg, aged 20, of Pert creek. They left on the late train for McRoberts where they will reside.

Hilliard, the 15 year old son of Tilden Wright, a Craftsville farmer, died Thursday morning at an early hour after a brief illness of a strange disease which could hardly be diagnosed by the leading physicians of the mountains. Young Wright was taken to the St. Joseph's Infirmary, Louisville, ten days ago, but without avail. The interment took place Friday morning in the Craft cemetery at Sergeant.

Pending the summoning of witnesses in the James Collier case from Cumberland river and desiring to rush the work of the court Judge Butler called the John D. Blair case, a jury was at once empaneled and the taking of evidence begun. It is expected that the fate of Blair will go into the hands of the jury by this afternoon. Blair is charged with the murder of Harry H. Corbin a brick layer of Bristol, Tenn., at Blackey, a new town in the southern end of Letcher county July 4, 1914 whom he struck with a rock as he (Corbin) was boarding an L. & N. passenger train for this city.

Owing to the prominence of Blair there is considerable interest centered in the case.

A few days ago at the home of Ezekiel Younts, a head of Rockhouse farmer, the 8 year old son died from injuries received by being kicked by a vicious mule several months ago. At first it was thought that the boy would recover until complications arose, resulting in his death. The family have the sympathies of that section of the country.

The grand jury just before the closing of the session returned indictments against Nelson Ratliff, charged with passing fraudulent checks in the county. Ratliff, however, is in Dickenson county, Va., his former home. He will be returned to this county to stand trial at the next term of court. The grand jury also returned indictments against Sol Groive for grand larceny, Nick Crofo, robbery, Dan Pannin, false pretense, Enoch Bates, disturbing lawful assembly, John Bush, breaking into store, Jesse Stumbo, chicken stealing, Floyd Hodge, hog stealing, Jesse Bentley, failing to provide for children.

The Letcher Fiscal Court met last week and named eight county road commissioners, one in each voting precinct in the county and the men will have charge of the $200,000 good roads bond money to be voted May 6. The commissioners named are as follows: East Ward, Whitesburg; B. F. Kincer, West Ward Whitesburg; Eli Ison, Jr., Upper Rockhouse; Jasper Collins, Lower Rockhouse; Grant Ison, Line Fork; John J. Huff, Cumberland River; D. C. Mullins, McRoberts; M. T. Reynolds, Jenkins, Spencer Johnson. It is said the commissioners named are satisfactory to the voters of the county, and it is now believed that the good roads sentiment will again increase and the issue carry by a safe majority May 6. Every effort is to be made to carry the county for bonds and this lift one of the richest counties in the State out of the mud. Citizens get busy and let Lecher show to the world that we are a progressive people ready to do anything for the up building of this glorious hill country.

Easter services were held in the different Whitesburg churches Sunday and large crowds were in attendance. Good order prevailed throughout. It is expected that an addition will be built to the M. E. Church South in the near future.

For two days last week Judge John F. Butler holding the Letcher circuit court was a very sick man, and attorney Felix G. Field adorned the judicial chair. At this time, however, Judge Butler is much better and it is hoped that he will continue to improve. Twice before the circuit court has been interrupted here by the illness of the Judge.

High cool winds have prevailed in this section for several days. At this time there are indications of frost. So far, it is believed the mountain fruit crop is safe. Indications show that the apple crop will be a bumper one.

WHITESBURG, KY., April 26.—One of the most severe electrical storms that has swept over this section in years visited here Monday afternoon doing considerable damage to telephone lines. For some time nearly all lines entering this section were out of commission. Following the storm there was a good rain which greatly benefited farmers as rain was greatly needed.

A few days ago a fire swept the town of Fleming in the coal fields destroying three miners houses. It was by heroic efforts that adjoining buildings were saved as the whole town was threatened for a time. The loss will reach from two to three thousand dollars.

The jury in the case of the commonwealth against John D. Blair held for the murder of Harry H. Corbin, a Bristol, Tenn., brick layer failed to agree at an early hour yesterday morning, reporting hopelessly hung. This is the third time that Blair has been tried for the Corbin murder, resulting in a mistrial each time.

It will be remembered that Blair killed Corbin with a rock as he was boarding a Louisville & Nashville train out of Blackey July 4, 1914. The case has been passed until the August term of court.

A very successful moonshine raid was made in Letcher county a few days ago when General Raiding Marshal U. G. McFarland, Glasgow, S. H. Tharpe, Richmond, John Riddle, of this city, marshals, toured the Upper Rockhouse creek and the Head of Kentucky river sections destroying five moonshine outfits, with whiskey, beer, etc., three of which were copper outfits. Only one arrest was made. The raid occupied two days, and was the most important made in this section in several months.

Marshal G. A. Sizemore of Hazard came here and took Anna James held for violations of the Harrison Narcotic Act, recently arrested, to Richmond where she is soon to go on trial charged with the sale of cocaine, morphine, etc. Officers will make further raids on resorts near Hazard where the James woman was arrested in efforts to check the sale of the dangerous drugs.

It is reported that leases are being made on a splendid coal land tract on Yount's Fork of Boone, on the new Yount's Fork Branch of the L. & N. above here in the coal fields, the development work to be started within the next thirty to sixty days. The coal mining activity continues unabated throughout the whole of Eastern Kentucky.

It is stated here that The Elkhorn Mining Corporation plants in the Fleming-Haymond-Hemphill fields will make some nice increases beginning May 1. A goodly number of extra men are to be employed.

All indications show that this will be by far the best year in the history of the coal mining business throughout the Elkhorn fields.

NEXT FRIDAY, MAY 5TH, SUN CIRCUS AT LOUISA.

They are truthfully advertised as the most wonderful elephants today in America.

"Tango Bill," the $10,000 high school horse, also appears at every performance. This beautiful equine is handled and performed by Mlle. Kelland, the well known New York horse woman.

The Sun Show will exhibit at Louisa Friday, May 5th, presenting two complete and unabridged performances. Afternoon and night. The usual free exhibitions will be offered on the show grounds at 12:30 p. m., and this season these are again all new and of a highly original kind.

A HAPPY SAVAGE.

PRISONERS FORCED TO DRINK BLOOD OF OXEN.

London, April 21.—A Reuter despatch from Cape Town, dealing with the report of a commission of inquiry into the treatment of prisoners of war by the Germans in Southwest Africa follows:

"A sensation has been caused by the publication of the official report of the commission of the inquiry into the treatment of prisoners of war by the Germans in the southwest African campaign, revealing another story of the shocking treatment of British prisoners and showing a complete lack of organization or central control.

"Food rations were coarse and became so insufficient that men were reduced to waiting in line to drink the blood of slaughtered oxen and to boiling the soft parts of hides to extract nourishment. They were scantily clad and harshly treated, some being sent on long journeys clad in a tunic, a short loin cloth and sandals and helmet, a spectacle says the report for 'women natives who saw them on the road.'

The German Sietz, ordered them placed in irons during their transit. One officer, Captain Geary, was held in solitary confinement for six months in a small cell of filthy sanitary conditions and infested with vermin and threatened with confinement in a dark cell if he dared to look out of the window.

"When officers complained to Governor Sietz he told them they ought to be thankful for what they got.

The ill treatment was not confined to war prisoners. British civilians who were political prisoners, with women and children, were confined in common jails, sleeping ten in a single cell with locked doors, resulting in sickness and disentry owing to the disgusting sanitary conditions.

"The report was discussed in the house, assembly members demanding that the guilty German officers be brought to justice. General Louis B. K., in reply, deprecated hate or re-

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Katharine Mays on Wednesday, April 26, from 9 to 10:30 at the home of her aunt, Mrs. R. T. Huffman, on Main-st.

The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns. The guests were received by her club members, Misses Violet Walker, Mary Morgan, Ruth Greer and Lorraine Bowles. In the dining room they were bountifully served to dainty refreshments. The blinds being drawn the room was brightly illuminated by candles. The table was decorated in pink and white carnations and ferns, a handsome bride's shower bouquet was suspended from the chandelier of tulle and apple blossoms.

The bride was beautifully attired in a handsome morning gown of rose silk made in the style of our grandmothers' time. The guests were shown into the parlor where a heavy laden table of friends gifts were, and at the appointed time the bride pushed the button, which was the pulling loose of the ribbon around the chignon draped parasol above the table out of which fell more lovely gifts. Afterwards they were shown into the library where the "cat was let out of the bag," by little Miss Julia Virginia Hatcher and Jack Huffman, which was the wedding announcement tied to a gray cat which had the words printed on it, "now you have let the cat out of the bag." This announcement was in a pink silk bag fastened to the chandelier with long streamers of pink ribbon which were pulled by the little girl. The one getting the cat when it fell from the bag was to read the announcement. Miss Violet Walker was the one to secure the cat. The announcement read as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. John Morehead Triplett have the honor of announcing to the shower guests the marriage of their daughter Katharine Mays to Mr. John Madison Hatcher on Thursday the ninth of March one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, Pikeville, Ky.

The announcement came as quite an agreeable shock to the host of friends present.

Mr. Hatcher comes of one of our old Kentucky families. He is a bright young man and a very brilliant lawyer. The bride's going away gown was of Joffre Blue coat suit with hat, gloves and shoes to match. The bride and groom left on the 11:15 train on an Eastern tour. They will be at home after May 15th at 225 College-st.
